Remembrance Day in After School Care

11 November

Book now

We will be recognising Remembrance Day (Monday, 11th November) at our Before and After School Care program.

Children will take part in thoughtful and creative activities to help them understand the importance of this special day. Together, we'll talk about what Remembrance Day means, why people wear red poppies, and how we can show respect for those who served our country.

Activities throughout the week will include:

- 🌸 Making red poppy crafts
- 📖 Reading stories about peace, courage, and friendship
- 🗣️ Yarning circle discussions about what peace means to us
- 🕒 Observing a minute of silence at 11am on Monday

Activities coming up

- Red poppy crafts
- Art and craft
- Red paint handprints
- Reading stories
